

For Immediate Release

Calgary, Alberta , February 1, 2005

Back & Body Health is excited to announce its new partnership with MultisportsCanada.com! As the primary provider of Active Release Techniques, Chiropractic and Massage Therapy for the 2005 series of events in Calgary, the healthcare staff at Back & Body Health is looking forward to working with all of the athletes, and preparing them for a successful season!

Back & Body Health practitioners are available year-round, to work with athletes and keep them at their healthiest as they prepare for upcoming competitions.

Our mission is to have your body at its best possible condition when the big day arrives!

On race day, therapists will be available to provide ART and Massage Therapy treatments for the nominal fee of $10 per 15 minute treatment. Just look for this sign:
